Barkuma

It's about you

Barkuma is dedicated to assisting you in creating, pursuing and achieving your life goals. This is done through one-on-one support with a dedicated worker to engage with the community and your education.

Our experienced team has supported over 1000 school students in a range of programs tailored specifically to individual needs.

We empower you through:

Mentoring and coaching support

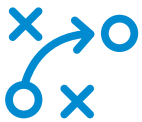

Advocacy and coordination of supports

Individual planning

Our skilled and motivated staff are matched with you and meet fortnightly to assist with:

Discovering and developing students personal awareness

Exploring different opportunities/activities

Planning for the future

NDIS Registered Provider

We are a registered provider of the following supports for school students under the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS):

- Increased Social & Community Participation
- Improved Learning
- Support Connection
- Support Coordination
- Specialist Support Coordination

The Barkuma Difference

We use an individualised person centred approach which is driven by you. Our staff work in partnership with you, your family, school and other key stakeholders to deliver the best possible outcome.

We are local to you and have been based in Northern Adelaide for nearly 50 years.
