You can make the difference

Raksmei has been working as an employee at Barkuma for over 2 years now, and her job makes up a large part of her social environment and contributes greatly to her self worth and happiness.

Why should you participate in Workplace Giving?

By participating in Workplace Giving, Barkuma can provide all of the things that Tarah needs to do her job. You can also help Tarah by providing life changing assistance such as:

- Additional training
- Education
- Activity programs

Raksmei is only one of the many people with disabilities we assist to live and work in the community. All of their stories are different, but their desire to be included in the community is the same.

By completing the tear off slip and returning it to your Pay Office, you can start to assist us to deliver above and beyond our already outstanding service delivery, and help people like Tarah to really shine!
