Much more than a job!

Supported employment means you work in a Barkuma owned factory. Working in this environment is a great way to develop your skills, confidence and experience, all while earning a wage.

Employment Conditions

At our packaging business you will receive wages, have set hours of work, leave entitlements, superannuation and other benefits. You will have a job description and participate in an annual appraisal process.

Work Experience

If you haven't worked in a supported environment before we can offer work experience. This can help you adjust to working life and decide if supported employment is right for you.
